CHEM 3720R Organic Chemistry Recitation 2 1 s.h.

An introduction to the preparation and analysis of organic compounds. Discussion of CHEM 3720 material and approaches to problem solving. Required for chemistry majors. Concurrent with: CHEM 3720.

Course Objectives: The purpose of the recitation section is discussion of CHEM 3720 material and approaches to problem solving. The emphasis of the recitation section is learning problem solving skills in organic chemistry. The focus of CHEM 3720 will be to help the students understand the underlying principles of Organic Chemistry. The students will be able to appreciate the relationship between the structure of an organic compound or intermediate, and its physical, chemical, and/or spectroscopic properties. The material presented in this course provides the necessary foundation for continued studies in organic chemistry, including the mechanisms of organic reactions, organic synthesis, bioorganic chemistry, and other related fields which involve organic molecules.

Last Day for Withdrawing with a Grade of 'W', Thursday, October 22, 2020.

Grading: There will be twelve 10 - 15 minute quizzes worth 10 points each. The top ten quizzes will be used to calculate your score, on a percentage basis, for a course total of 100 points. Missed quizzes will be counted as scores of zero points. There will be no quiz the first week of classes. Letter grades will be assigned by the following:

A (100-90 pts.); B (89-80 pts.); C (79-70 pts.); D (69-60 pts.); F below 60 pts.

This grading scale may be lowered, depending upon the difficulty level of the quizzes.

NOTE: CHEM 3720R is a separate class from CHEM 3720, each student in CHEM 3720R will receive a grade solely based upon performance in CHEM 3720R, separate from CHEM 3720. There WILL NOT be a quiz on the first day of class.

Class Format: The problem review portion of CHEM 3720R will be conducted Live via Webex. The class will be given a short break, and then the quiz will be administered Live In-Person in Room 3022. Photo ID required.
